
The Salvation Journey
1 Corinthians 6:9-11 (NKJV)

I.) From the sermon [give a brief answer]

Every believer has a circle of influence. We all have family, friends, neighbors, coworkers, or acquaintances that do not know Jesus Christ. Our responsibility is to be a godly influence. In order to be a godly influence and lead others to Christ, we need to understand where people are on their salvation journey.

1) Understand the fate of the wicked (1 Cor. 6:9-10 (a) How did Paul describe the sinfulness of those who break God's laws? Do you see any similarities in today society? Do these kind of sin can get in the church today (just like in Corinthians church]

2) Do not be deceived about sin and judgment (1 Cor. 6:9-10, How can Christ - believers be deceived about sin and judgment?

3) How to be washed, sanctified, and justified? (1 Corinthians 6:11)
